

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fernando Jones' 9th Annual International Blues Camp for Kids

"Summer 2018"

CHICAGO, IL (Spring 2018) – Blues Kids Foundation will host Fernando Jones' 9th Annual International Blues Camp this Summer at Columbia College Chicago, Chicago State University The Logan Center for the Arts on the University of Chicago campus, Tennessee State University and The Premises Recording Studios in London starting in June and rolling through August. We will award tuition waiver scholarships to over 350 student musicians and audio/visual students ages 10 to 18.

Through this priceless, fun-filled experience Blues Kids will learn and perform America's "root" music in a structured program with like minded others under the tutelage of highly qualified and internationally traveled instructors. Blues Kids from all over the world are invited to attend, too. Entry is competitive. Beginner, intermediate and advanced placement in ensembles is available. Register your Blues Kid online at BluesKids.com/EarlyBird. In-person audition locations will be published immediately.

The 8 - day experiences in Chicago will be filled with extracurricular activities that will include but not be limited to public performances and skating and bowling parties.

- The 2018 Blues Kid of the Year Contest: BluesKids.com/Contest
- Become a Sponsor/Strategic Partner: BluesKids.com/Give
- For information on Fernando Jones, the founder, visit FernandoJones.com

Blues Kids Foundation is an IRS recognized 501(c)(3) nonprofit charitable organization.

Thanks for making us your charity of choice.

###

Media Contact: James McMurray

(773) 519-4843 • Info@BluesKids.com