

OIL AND WATER (Don't Mix)

Written by Fernando Jones / Performed by Nellie Travis

You remind me of a hurricane,
But you treat me like a candle in the rain.
I give you money,
I give you my time,
But I know you'll never be mine.
I've tried all the tricks . . . still
Oil and water don't' mix.

I just remembered, I don't know your name.
Is it Billy the Kid or Jesse James?
You're fine, but you treat me oh so mean.
I've tried all the tricks . . . still
Oil and water don't' mix.

If I was a bottle of glue
Still, I wouldn't stick to you.
Maybe you think I'm a brick wall
Because you never, ever call.

You remind me of a hurricane
But you treat me like a candle in the rain.
I give you money,
I give you my time,
But I know you'll never be mine.
I've tried all the tricks . . . still
Oil and water don't' mix.

Let's mix it up, baby. Ahhh, come over here. Now, let me give you a little bit of my water for a little bit of your oil. Aww, baby, you know what I'm talkin' about. Ahhh, yeah.
